Simon Fraser University Library invites applications for a Liaison Librarian for History, International Studies, Liberal Studies and Political Science. This full-time, continuing position is based at Belzberg Library, Vancouver campus, and supports departments and programs at all three SFU campuses.

Reporting to the Head, Belzberg Library, the incumbent will be responsible for providing library liaison services to SFU academic programs and participating in projects related to library services.

SETTING

We acknowledge the Sḵwx̱wú7mesh Úxwumixw (Squamish), xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), səil̓ilwətaʔɬ (Tsleil-Waututh), qițqəy (Katzie), and kʷik̓w̓əƛ̓əm (Kwikwetlem) peoples, on whose traditional territories Simon Fraser University’s three campuses stand. By recognizing the Unceded Traditional Coast Salish territories, we aspire to create space for reconciliation through dialogue and decolonizing practices.

One of Canada’s top three comprehensive universities for the past 20 years, Simon Fraser University has also been consistently named one of British Columbia’s Top Employers in recent years, as well as one of Canada’s Top 100 employers, and one of Canada’s top family-friendly employers. SFU offers more than 100 undergraduate major and joint major programs and more than 45 graduate offerings, spanning many disciplines in eight faculties, and has an international reputation for its innovative interdisciplinary and professional programs. The main WAC Bennett Library is located on the Burnaby campus and Fraser Library is at SFU Surrey. The Samuel and Frances Belzberg Library is the downtown Vancouver branch of SFU Library supporting teaching, research, lifelong learning and community engagement at the SFU Vancouver campus.

The SFU Library is known for the development and implementation of innovative technology, leadership in Open Access, and excellent in-person and online user services. We serve an ethnically diverse student population, most of whom live off-campus and work part-time while attending university. SFU Library collaborates broadly with other institutions through membership in the Canadian Association of Research Libraries, the Association of Research Libraries, and regional consortia. For more information, see our web site at http://www.lib.sfu.ca/.

The SFU Library commits to a continuous process of transformation to advance equity, diversity, and inclusion and to serve the cause of social justice. The Library’s Statement on Equity, Diversity and Inclusion provides more information.
ASSIGNMENT

- Act as liaison between the SFU Library and the faculty, staff and students in the Department of History, the School for International Studies, the Graduate Liberal Studies Program, and the Department of Political Science by:
  - Promoting library services and collections and reporting the discipline’s requirements to the appropriate area of the library.
  - Collaborating with Collections Management to develop, assess, and manage information resources in all formats to address the teaching and research needs of the liaison areas. This includes maintaining the collection policy; maintaining profiles for approval plans; reviewing subscriptions; selecting and de-accessioning material; budget oversight; other collection activities.
  - Communicating with faculty and students about emerging areas such as scholarly communication, publishing and data management and promoting relevant library programming.
  - Providing instruction and assistance to students and faculty in the use of information sources through instructional seminars, guides, and individual consultations.
- Provide in-person and online reference service in all disciplines as a member of a team serving students, faculty and community users in an active research environment.
- Work with other library staff on project teams and committees.
- Develop professional knowledge, skills, and disciplinary expertise on a continuing basis.
- Participate in professional organizations.
- Advance the values and goals outlined in the Library’s Strategic Plan.
- Other duties as assigned.
- Note that while the current assignment is for History, International Studies, Liberal Studies and Political Science, areas may be reassigned as needed.
