Celebration of SFU Authors

March 22, 2011

Message from the University Librarian

Welcome to this celebration of SFU authors who have published a book or chapter during 2010. This is the fourth annual event celebrating SFU book authors sponsored by the Library and supported by the Bookstore. This year we are celebrating 133 works published by 110 authors, including faculty, students, staff and alumni. The topics covered by our authors reflect the broad scope of inquiry at SFU and suggest the impressive impact that our authors are having within both the academy and the broader community of readers. I would like to extend my personal congratulations to each author.

Charles Eckman

Charles Eckman
University Librarian and Dean of Library Services

This list comprises book/chapter publications by SFU students, staff, alumni, and current and retired faculty from January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010.

We regret any discrepancies or omissions.
