Celebration of SFU Authors

March 26, 2013

SFU

Message from the University Librarian

Welcome to this celebration of SFU authors who have published a book or book chapter during 2012. This is the sixth annual event celebrating SFU book authors sponsored by the Library. This year we are celebrating 140 works published by 119 current faculty, students, staff as well as SFU alumni and retirees. The topics covered by the authors reflect the wide range of inquiry at SFU and confirm the broad impact that our authors are having on the global community. The Library extends its congratulations to each author on their achievement.

Charles Eckman
University Librarian and Dean of Library Services

This list comprises book/chapter publications by SFU students, staff, alumni, and current and retired faculty from January 1, 2012 to December 31, 2012.

We regret any discrepancies or omissions.
