SFU employees have the responsibility to abide by Canada’s Copyright Act and by the University’s own copyright policies. This decision tree will help you determine whether you can use a copyright protected work in the way you would like to.

Copyright Decision Tree

IS THE WORK PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT?
Material not protected by copyright includes material in the public domain and material lacking in creativity or originality such as data, facts or ideas. The FAQs at copyright.sfu.ca can help you.

ARE YOU THE CREATOR OF THE WORK?
If so, do you own copyright in the work? Or have you retained the right to use it for this purpose, or to use a different version (e.g. a pre-print)?

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO DO WITH THE WORK? IS THE WORK LICENSED FOR THIS TYPE OF USE?
(e.g. Library license, Open Access, Creative Commons)

IS THE WORK PROTECTED BY A TECHNOLOGICAL PROTECTION MEASURE (TPM)?
(e.g. password or download-blocker)

IS THERE A LICENSING AGREEMENT OR STATEMENT SPECIFICALLY DISALLOWING THIS USE OF THE WORK?
(e.g. website terms of use, restrictions on Library license)

DOES FAIR DEALING OR ANOTHER COPYRIGHT ACT EXCEPTION APPLY?
See the Instructors section at copyright.sfu.ca for what you can do with copyright protected works for teaching purposes, or contact the Copyright Office (copy@sfu.ca) with any questions.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO USE THIS MATERIAL, YOU COULD:
- ask the copyright holder for permission to use the work in this way,
- adapt the material, repurpose the data in your own way or paraphrase (with attribution in each case),
- provide a link to the work instead,
- remove the work, or
- use a different work.

All works must be legally obtained. Works must be properly cited. 07/2019
