An Approach to Searching

• When searching for information, start by asking questions.

• Question help by identifying key concepts and narrowing down the scope of your topic.

• Keywords can be used as search terms.

• Choose appropriate database(s) for the type of information that you are looking for.
Databases for news stories

LBST 101: Work and Worker's Rights: Introducing Labour Studies

Selected news databases:

• Canadian Newsstream - full text of over 350 Canadian newspapers from Canada’s leading publishers

• Nexis Uni - Indexes newspapers from around the world, in English and other languages. Includes transcripts from the major television and radio networks

• Factiva - Over 35,000 sources (newspapers, newswires, industry publications, websites, company reports, and more) from 200 countries, in 26 languages. Includes the Wall Street Journal.

Additional library guides:
• Media literature review guide: How to conduct a literature review of news sources
• How to spot fake news: Identifying propaganda, satire, and false information
Employment of visible minorities in Canada

Concept 1: employment OR jobs OR work

Concept 2: visible minorities OR women of color OR immigrants OR race OR ethnicity OR [name of a visible minority group]

Concept 3: Canada OR British Columbia OR BC

Databases for Scholarly Journal Articles

If you need to find databases for a discipline, use the “Article databases” link and use the pull-down menu under “browse by subject”.

Each database indexes journals from a particular discipline. Some databases are multi-disciplinary (Academic Search).

LBST 101: Work and Worker's Rights: Introducing Labour Studies

- ProQuest Sociology Collection - Searches multiple databases including: Applied Social Science Index, ProQuest Sociology Database, Social Services Abstracts, and Sociological Abstracts. For information of immigrants, racism, society, etc.

- Social Sciences Full Text Covers social science journals

- CBCA Full Text Business - Canadian focus: Trade journals, general business publications, academic journals, topical journals, and professional publications.
"Mine" the bibliography

Check the bibliography of relevant sources to find additional citations.

To see if the library owns a particular journal or a book:

- Search for journal name using the A-Z journal list
- Search for the title of the book using the “Browse by title” link in Catalogue Search
SFU Inter-Library Loans Service (ILL)

• If full-text of an article is not within a database,
  • Click on the “Get@SFU” icon to find the full-text or to initiate an Inter-Library Loans request (free to you)

Alternatively, use the form, below, to request something through ILL service.

• Citation Finder/ILL Tab (just above search box in Catalogue Search)
  • To initiate an ILL request, “Sign-in” using your SFU Computing ID and SFU Password
