

Data vs statistics

Data

- Facts or figures* from which conclusions can be drawn
- Numeric files created and organized
  - for analysis, or to create a new table
  - require processing
- Includes geographic data
  - (to make maps)

Statistics

- Statistics are processed data, or data that have been analyzed in some way
- Generally used to support an argument or position in a study or report
- Presentation ready

Sources by category

