

ARE YOU A FRASER INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE STUDENT?

Here's what the SFU Student Learning Commons can offer you:

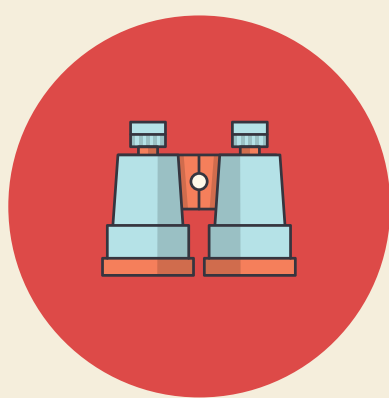

FREE WORKSHOPS EVERY SEMESTER

Writing, Learning & Studying, and English Skills

Go to the SLC homepage to find a workshop that matches your interests, academic needs, and schedule. Sign up in advance to guarantee a spot. Most workshops are 50 minutes long.

SELF-STUDY ONLINE RESOURCES, 24/7

Click on the green, red, or blue buttons on our homepage for websites and handouts created or curated by the SLC. Popular topics include: Dealing with stress, Managing your time, Improving your English skills, Creating strong written arguments, and Grammar support.

OLD SCHOOL, HARD COPY HANDOUTS

Tips and strategies to help with many popular writing, learning, and English language topics. Grab our handouts during Library hours in Burnaby, Surrey, and Vancouver.

CUSTOMIZED WORKSHOPS

We may pop-up in your classes!

Our custom workshops focus on specific research, critical reading, and/or writing skills for your particular assignments and courses. You can ask your instructor if any Library or SLC workshops are planned for your class.

SOME LAST THINGS TO KNOW

As an FIC student, you are not able to...

- * have individual writing, learning or English conversation consultations at the SLC
- * get online writing feedback through WriteAway.ca
- * get CCR credit for SLC workshops

 AFTER TRANSFERRING TO SFU, YOU WILL BE FULLY ELIGIBLE TO USE ALL SLC SERVICES.

STUDENT
LEARNING
COMMONS