32. Roy Kiyooka fonds

1930-1997, predominant 1970-1990

4.5 m of textual records and other material

Biographical Sketch:

Roy Kiyooka was born in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan in 1926. Of Japanese-Canadian descent, his family's internment during World War II had a profound impact on the nature of Kiyooka's life, and his work as an artist, poet and teacher. Growing up in Calgary, Kiyooka studied at the Alberta College of Art in the 1940s, and at the Instituto Allende in Mexico in 1955. He also attended the Artists' Workshops at Emma Lake, Saskatchewan during the summers between 1956 and 1960 to work under two American leading abstract artists: Will Barnett and Barnett Newman. When he arrived in Vancouver in 1959, Kiyooka was already one of Canada's most respected abstract painters.

He became a member of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts in 1965, and represented Canada at the Sao Paulo Biennial in Brazil, where he was awarded a silver medal. In 1967 his work was exhibited at Expo in Montreal and in every major centennial show across Canada. The Canadian government commissioned Kiyooka to do a sculpture for the 1970 Expo in Osaka, Japan.

Kiyooka taught in Halifax at the Nova Scotia College of Art & Design, and in 1973, he was hired as an instructor of painting at the University of British Columbia Faculty of Fine Arts. During this period, his work turned increasingly away from painting to other forms of visual and performing arts, and to writing. Although he continued to teach painting, he produced a range of works in the course of his lifetime, which included photography, collages, photomontages, sculpture, film and poetry. Kiyooka often collaborated with other artists and writers in his work, and his poetry was published by a number of presses throughout Canada. He personally published chapbooks of his poems, under the press name Blue Mule, which was also the name of his photo gallery on Keefer Street in Vancouver. In 1975 his importance was recognized by appointment to the Order of Canada, and with status as Professor Emeritus in the Department of Fine Arts of the University of British Columbia. Until his death in 1994, he was highly respected as a poet and was an influential figure in local and national art circles.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consist of materials relating to Kiyooka's work as an artist and a writer. The majority of the fonds is made up of correspondence and other writings. Because of the nature of Kiyooka's work, his published writings are often based on personal correspondence, and his poetry is intermingled with his other artistic endeavors. The materials highlight these interconnections, including layouts for books and photomontages, multiple drafts of manuscripts, poems and letters, and some photographs and other records relating to his artistic activities. The fonds also includes some general administrative and financial records, materials relating to his teaching career such as notes and lectures, and collected works by other artists and writers.

Notes:

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the fonds.

Physical description: Includes ca. 320 photographs, 2 microfilm reels, 2 audio discs, 1 metal address file

Immediate source of acquisition: The materials were acquired from Roy Kiyooka's daughters in two accessions in 2001 and 2003.

Arrangement: The files are arranged physically by accession. Boxes 1 to 20 form the first accession; boxes 21 to 33 form the second accession. The first accession was physically arranged by a volunteer at SFU Special Collections into the categories: Correspondence, Manuscripts, and Miscellaneous Archives. The second accession has been physically arranged according to Kiyooka's arrangement of the records. All materials have been integrated intellectually into five series: Correspondence, Works By and About Kiyooka, Japanese Canadian Redress, Financial and Administrative Records, and Collected Publications and Works by Others. The Works By and About Kiyooka series is divided into two subseries: Manuscripts and Publications, and Artistic Activities. Because the attempt has been made to retain the original order in the second accession, materials relevant to multiple series are included in many of the files.

Restrictions: Materials are for research purposes only. All other uses are restricted.

Finding aids: Series, subseries and file descriptions are available.

Associated material: The Morris and Helen Belkin Gallery Archives holds other publications, posters and artworks collected by Kiyooka. The Belkin Archives also holds approximately 5700 of Kiyooka's photographs.

Related records at Simon Fraser University: Special Collections also holds other publications by Roy Kiyooka. See the SFU Library Catalogue for details. Slides of some of Kiyooka's art works are in the Bennett Library Media Collections. See the SFU Library Catalogue for details. The Fumiko Kiyooka fonds held by Special Collections contains audio-visual materials and transcripts for her video production The Return, which focuses on Roy Kiyooka's work as an artist. Two other videorecordings directed by Fumiko Kiyooka are held in the Special Collections media collections: "Clouds," and "The Longed-for Knowing: A Daughter's Quest for Her Father Roy Kiyooka." See the SFU Library Catalogue for details.

Series 1: Correspondence

1951-1994

1.5 m of textual records and other material

Series consists of incoming and outgoing correspondence. The materials include personal letters, as well as correspondence related to Kiyooka's work as an artist and a writer. The materials in the first accession to SFU Special Collections were physically separated by author. Incoming correspondence was arranged alphabetically by author, and outgoing correspondence was arranged chronologically. This arrangement has been retained. The materials in the second accession were left in their original order, as Kiyooka had organized them roughly by year in labeled envelopes. His groupings sometimes included undated or dated materials from other periods; however, this arrangement has been retained.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the series.

Physical description: Includes ca. 200 photographs

Series 2: Works By and About Kiyooka

[1964-1992]

2.3 m of textual records and other materials

The series consists of works done by Kiyooka, and works by others about Kiyooka. The series has been divided into two subseries: Manuscripts and Publications, and Artistic Activities. While much of Kiyooka's work can be clearly divided according to the writing and artistic aspects of his career, there is a great deal of overlap, and the two subseries are interwoven. They should be viewed in conjunction in order to obtain a full picture of his works and activities.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the series.

Subseries 1: Manuscripts and Publications

[1964-1991]

1.75 m of textual records

The series consists of drafts of poems, publications, and various manuscripts. The materials exist in multiple, often disordered drafts annotated by Kiyooka. Pages and sections of various manuscripts are often mixed together. The materials have been arranged according to the way in which Kiyooka ordered the papers.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the subseries.

Subseries 2: Artistic Activities

[1964-1992]

55 cm of textual records and graphic materials

Subseries consists of materials relating to Kiyooka's artistic works, including layouts and drafts, correspondence and advertisements relating to various projects, as well as clippings of reviews, and photocopied publications.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the subseries.

Series 3: Japanese Canadian Redress

0.5 cm of textual records

Series consists of an application, acknowledgement, and other information relating to Japanese Canadian redress.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the file.

Related records: Files 32.2.11 and 32.5.3 contain correspondence and published statements relating to redress.

Series 4: Financial and Administrative Records

[1932-1997]

25 cm of textual records

Series consists of financial and administrative records relating to Kiyooka's work as an artist and writer. The series also includes general administrative records and materials relating to Kiyooka's appointment to the Order of Canada.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the series.

Physical description: Series includes 12 photographs and 1 metal address file.

Series 5: Collected Publications and Works by Others

[1930-1991]

33 cm of textual records and other materials

Series consists of published and unpublished works collected by Kiyooka or given to him by other artists and writers.

Source of supplied title: Title based on the contents of the series.

Physical description: Includes 7 photographs, 2 audio discs, and 2 microfilms
