

Writer Hazel Jane Plante

Reading in Special Collections, Bennett Library, Wednesday - Oct. 16th, 2019

Hazel Jane Plante is a queer trans librarian, cat photographer, and writer. In a previous life, she co-founded a micro-press, co-edited a little literary journal, co-hosted a podcast, and released lo-fi albums under the name Sparse. Her debut novel Little Blue Encyclopedia (for Vivian), published by Metonymy Press, sifts through a queer trans woman's unrequited love for her straight trans friend who died. A queer love letter steeped in desire, grief, and delight, the story is interspersed with encyclopedia entries about a fictional TV show set on an isolated island.

Hazel will read from her novel in Special Collections & Rare Books on Wednesday, October 16th, 2019 from 12:30 - 1:30 pm. Special Collections is located in room 7100 on the 7th floor of the W.A.C. Bennett Library, Simon Fraser University, 8888 University Drive, Burnaby. Free! Refreshments will be served.
