Vancouver poet and editor Catriona Strang is the author of the collections Low Fancy (1993), Corked (2014), and Reveries of a Solitary Biker (2016). She is co-author with the late Nancy Shaw of three additional collections and recently edited Shaw’s selected works, The Gorge, published last year by Talonbooks. The mother of two, Catriona Strang is a founding member of the Institute for Domestic Research. She frequently collaborates with composer Jacqueline Leggatt and clarinetist François Houle. Until recently she served as editor of The Capilano Review, and presently works for Talonbooks.

Poet Clea Roberts lives on the outskirts of Whitehorse, Yukon Territory. Her debut collection, Here Is Where We Disembark (Freehand Books, 2010), was nominated for both the League of Canadian Poets’ Gerald Lampert Award and the ReLit Award, and was translated into German and Japanese. A graduate of SFU English, she facilitates a workshop on poetry and grief through Hospice Yukon and is the Artistic Director of the Kicksled Reading Series. Her second collection of poetry, Auguries, was published by Brick Books in 2017 and speaks to wilderness, loss and motherhood.

Catriona Strang & Clea Roberts will be reading in Special Collections & Rare Books on Thursday, March 1st, 2018 from 12:30 - 1:30 pm, with refreshments and a question period to follow. Special Collections is located in room 7100 on the 7th floor of the W.A.C. Bennett Library, Simon Fraser University, 8888 University Drive, Burnaby. Free!
